April 2023

Number 27

Issue 9

Honey (Hannelore) Ellison, our Out-of-Town Trip Committee Chair, writes, "I was born and raised in Germany, where I married my sweetheart who was in the military. We had many good times together, and we always went on trips such as to Spain, Paris, South of France, and other places."

"I raised my 3 children in Germany, and worked as an air traffic control specialist for a military unit in Heidelberg for 17 years. In 1997 we came to the U.S. I was always interested in Traveling and attended a Travel School."

"I found CALL on the Internet and really enjoyed the classes from the first day. I love to drive and explore new places. I try to find various interesting places for our out-of-town-trips, and enjoy having fun with other CALL members."

The Spring Social Trip

On Friday, April 14th, we will meet the CSU bus in the parking lot of the Wynn House (1240 Wynnton Road, across from the Columbus Museum) in time to depart at 10:00 a.m. Tour guide, Victor Feliciano, will join us for his very popular Vicinity Tour Ante Bellum Tour featuring homes and places in the Wynnton-Midtown area of Columbus. Estates built on wide-open country stood the test of progress.

We will see over 30 points of interest, with views of up to 100 outstanding homes, demonstrating rich styles of architecture in Wynnton, Weracoba, and Downtown Historical District.

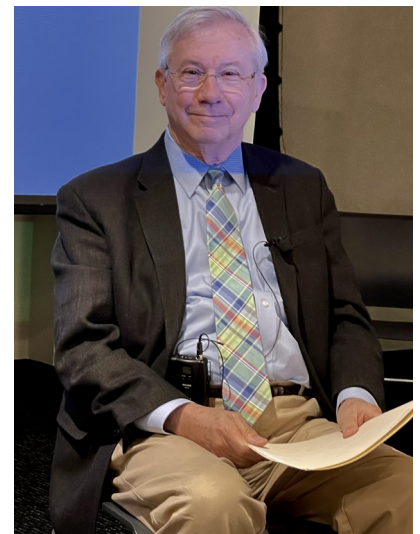

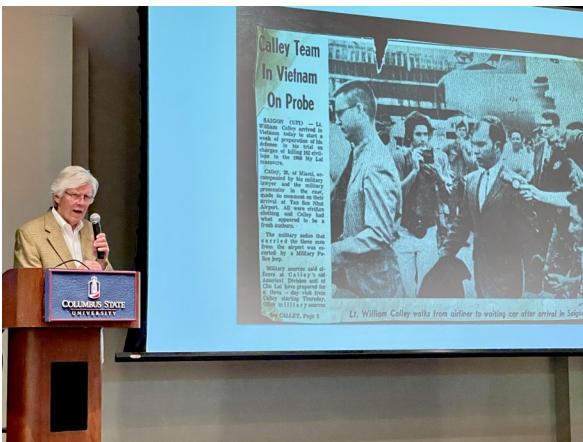

The tour will last approximately two hours, with occasional stopping and getting out to stretch or admire something. We will return to the parking lot about noon, where we can enjoy a prepaid light lunch (fixed menu) at the Wynn House.

Plan now to attend our CALL End of the Year Celebration, honoring our wonderful facilitators for the past year. It's also a great time to socialize and have fun!

Please look for your invitation to the Recognition Banquet sometime mid-April via U.S. Mail. This is a time that we recognize those facilitators that provide us with the quality classes we all enjoy. The banquet will be held May 9 starting at 11:30 at CSU's Cunningham Center. Your RSVP must be received no later than April 26 in order for you to attend.
